OVHcloud offers different types of rates depending on the type of Service (monthly flat-rate, yearly flat-rate, per use pricing, etc.). These rates may be linked to a commitment to a particular period of use and/or a specific method of invoicing. Should several types of rates be available for the same Service, the Customer may select the one of its choosing when submitting its Order. When prices are listed excluding taxes (in particular, prices for Services designed for businesses), the VAT as well as all other taxes applicable to the Services (excluding taxes on OVHcloud revenue) shall be added to the price of the Services and due by the Customer without this being deemed a change in the price as envisaged by article 6.2 of this Contract. The Customer is responsible for acquiring and fulfilling its obligations in respect of all licenses and usage rights that are necessary to operate or make use of the Content within the scope of the Services. The methods for calculating the price of the Services, as well as the billing units, are defined on the OVHcloud Website and in the applicable Specific Terms of Service. The Customer is responsible for taking note of this before submitting its order. Each billing unit begun shall be invoiced and due in full, even when it is not totally used. Some Services shall incur additional installation or commissioning costs.

7.2. Changes to prices. OVHcloud reserves the right to change its prices at any time. Pricing changes are immediately applicable to any new Orders. For Services in use at the time of an increase in their price, the Customer shall be informed of the change by email at least thirty (30) calendar days in advance. In such a case, the Customer has the right to terminate without penalty the impacted Services within thirty (30) calendar days upon the notification of the said price increase. Such termination shall be notified by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt or through a specific form provided in the Management Interface. In the absence of said termination, the Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the new prices.

The Services shall be invoiced on the basis of Customer Orders and consumption of Services as established by OVHcloud in its information system, which shall be deemed as admissible and fully enforceable to the Customer. The periodicity (monthly, yearly, or other) of invoices and the timing of their issuance (upon ordering or in arrears) varies from one Service to another. The terms of invoicing of the prices of the Services are defined on the OVHcloud Website and in the applicable Specific Terms of Service. The Customer is responsible for taking note of these before submitting its Order. After each payment, OVHcloud shall send the Customer an

The Customer is responsible for selecting its desired payment method from among the available payment methods in the Management Interface. The available payment methods may vary from one Service to another. The Customer is responsible for taking note of this before submitting its Order. In relation to Services payable in arrears, OVHcloud reserves the right to invoice the Customer for said Services before the end of a calendar month in the event that the total Services consumed by the Customer during the month in question reach a significant amount. The Customer is fully responsible for payment of Services in accordance with the article “Financial Conditions”. The Customer undertakes to select a valid payment method in its Customer Account, and to dispose of the necessary funds to render payment for the Services. Subject to mandatory applicable laws, the Customer remains liable to settle the price in its entirety and shall have no claim to any reimbursement resulting from the non-use, the partial-use, suspension or cessation of the use of Services before the end of the Period of Use which is without prejudice to the Customer’s right to engage OVHcloud’s liability in accordance with article “Liability” hereafter in case such situation results from OVHcloud’s failure to fulfil its obligations.

7.5. Default or late payment. In case of default or late payment, including partial payment, the Customer shall be liable to pay late payment penalties due the day following the payment due date and OVHcloud shall have the right to charge interest on the overdue amount at three times the statutory interest rate. Furthermore, any default or delay of payment (including partial) of the sums due by the Customer under the Contract which persists for more than four (4) days after notification of default or delay of payment sent to the Customer by email, shall result by right, and without requiring any additional notification or formal notice, in (a) the immediate demand of all of the sums remaining due by the Customer under the Contract regardless of their payment terms, and (b) the right of OVHcloud to decide to immediately suspend and without prior notice all or part of the Customer Services (including those which have been paid for), to refuse any new Order or renewal of Services to the Customer and to terminate all or part of the Contract. 6.6. Contestation. In the event of any disagreement regarding invoicing or the nature of the Services, the Customer must notify OVHcloud Support through its Management Interface within one (1) month of the date the invoice was issued. In the absence of said notification, and without prejudice to the Customer’s right to contest the invoice later on, the Customer shall be liable to settle all unpaid invoices according to the terms of the Contract. In case of failure to invoice the Services correctly or in the appropriate timeframe, OVHcloud reserves the right to invoice or correct the invoicing at any time, subject to any mandatory applicable limitation.

SECTION 8: TERMINATION, LIMITATION AND SUSPENSION OF SERVICE

OVHcloud reserves the right to interrupt the Service, as needed, for technical interventions designed to improve its operations, or for maintenance procedures within the confines accepted industry best practices whenever possible.

- if it seems that the Customer is using the services provided for any activity whatsoever which is not in compliance with these General Terms and Conditions;

The parties agree that OVHcloud may, as of right, bring changes to its Service simply by informing the Customer through an online notice and/or by amending its General Terms and Conditions online. Any amendment or introduction of new options offered shall be posted online on OVHcloud's Site or sent via e-mail to the Customer.
